

Renee's Garden Seeds
New for 2011

#5857 Baby Cabbage, "Pixie "

Space- saving, early maturing baby variety quickly forms compact, dense 5-6 inch heads with excellent sweet flavor. A perfect size for everyday meals. Can take both heat and frosty weather.

#5865, Radish, Pink Punch

Bright and beautiful Pink Punch radishes mature quickly with an extravagant deep magenta color on the outside and crispy, juicy white flesh. Easy to grow and striking accents for salads/snacks.

#5866 Radish, Heirloom Watermelon

Unique Asian heirloom, also called "Beauty Heart", produces large, 2 to 4 inch roots with pale green exteriors and lovely, rose- red colored mild flesh the same color as a ripe watermelon.

#5852 Nasturtium, Heirloom Buttercream

Tropical looking variety with semi-double, open-faced creamy pastel blossoms. Plants softly mounding habit drapes gracefully to fill garden beds or borders; especially lush in containers.

#5859 White Corn, Sugar Pearl

Exclusive Handsome ears of succulent kernels with the delicate, sweet, meltingly tender flavor available from the best white corn. Top eating quality and ideal for short /early season harvests.

#5861 Lettuce, Heirloom, Garden Ferns

Exclusive Big, heavy rosettes of delectable elongated leaves with a sweet flavor and delicate juicy texture make this beautiful heirloom looseleaf lettuce an Italian treasure.

#5863 Greens, Mild Mustard Mix

Exclusive Our balanced mix of 4 different mild mustards, from upright and smooth to crinkly and curly. Ideal for fast-growing, tasty and nutritious cool-season greens or salads.

#5862 Lettuce, Wine Country Mesclun

Exclusive Straight from the Napa Valley, our favorite chef's preferred blend of 8 different colorful sweet lettuces with just the right amount of tangy greens, combining both crispy and buttery leaf textures.

#5855 Cutting Zinnias, Bling Bling

Exclusive Multi-branching double blossoms in rich orange, intense sunny yellow, and sultry violet/purple.

Our blend of big double zinnias in these fabulous, sexy, fun colors naturally makes its own bouquet.

#5860 Japanese Cucumber, Tasty Green

Thin- skinned, long "burpless" hybrid Japanese cucumbers combine sweet taste & crispy texture. Slender 12 inch fruits on vigorous, early bearing vines with long and reliable harvests.

#5864, Scallions, Parade

Exclusive Parade is quick to grow to a useful size, with tender- crisp green tops, long crunchy white shafts and a mild flavor and crispy texture. Thrives in wide variety of soils and conditions.

#5858 Carrots, Circus, Circus

Exclusive Our trio of cool carrot colors includes creamy white, bright orange and a deep, dark purple with orange centers. All 3 well bred Dutch varieties are sweet tasting, crisp and smooth.

#5867 Hibiscus, Tea

Once its pretty blossoms are spent, just pick and air dry the teardrop-shaped flower calyxes for delicious ruby-colored tea with a floral, berry aroma and well balanced, cranberry-like flavor.

#5854 Sunflower, Royal Flush

Vibrant, early-blooming mix includes bicolors with mahogany petals that taper to golden tips and others with sunny yellow faces and gorgeous deep, dark-red flower faces. Makes great bouquets.

#5850 Alyssum, Summer Romance

Fast growing, honey-scented blossom clusters that cloak the ground in a fragrant tapestry of lavender, violet, rose-pink, and white. Attracts butterflies/pollinators/beneficials.

#5856 Zinnia, Little Lion

Carefree, lively Little Lion offers intense orange-red, double 4-5 inch blossoms with multiple layers of petals that remind us of a lion's mane. Butterflies seek out the big vibrant blossoms.

#5853 Rudbeckia, Cappuccino

First season blooming Fleuroselect winner in a beautiful contrasting bicolor shades of red and yellow, warm mahogany, rich auburn and gold. Sturdy and sun-loving; heat and drought tolerant. Butterflies adore it.

#5851 Dahlia, Watercolors

Exclusive Lovely decorative 1&1/2 ft. dahlias with fully double, silky flowers with patterned petals in luminous shades of rose-coral, apricot, soft salmon, buttercream and lilac. Perfect in pots or borders.
